Mayor's Update

by Mayor Ed Lieberman

Mayor Ed Lieberman

Welcome Sea Cliff!! It is with great pride and humility that I welcome you to this edition of our Village's official publication. As your newly-elected and duly installed 35th Mayor of our beloved Village, I wish to extend a warm welcome on behalf of the current Board of Trustees. In composing our Board, Deputy Mayor Kevin McGilloway and Trustee Robin Maynard are joined by recently re-elected Trustee Dina Epstein and newly elected Trustee Deborah McDermott.

We, as your Board of Trustees, are dedicated to the well-being of our Village whereby all opinions are heard in an open and receptive manner with a full exchange of ideas. Beyond that stated approach, this administration is further dedicated and resolved to provide the finest services and resources to our residents. We are devoted to ensure that our residents continue to feel welcomed by their governmental representatives. Our governmental departments and official Boards are in full operation having newly appointed members sworn-in at our 134th Annual and Organizational Meeting held on April 3rd. During the process of making my appointments I had the pleasure of meeting and speaking with the new prospective appointees and immediately was impressed by their vibrant exuberance for volunteering and serving our Village. Moreover, their

Mayor Ed Lieberman kindly welcomed a full house to the Annual Organizational Meeting of the Incorporated Village of Sea Cliff on Monday, April 3 at 7:00 p.m. The Presentation of Colors and Pledge of Allegiance were led by four members of Boy Scout Troop 43. In his general remarks, Mayor Lieberman personally thanked Jeffrey Vitale for his service while appointed Trustee. Judge Reali then formally swore in Edward Lieberman as Mayor for a term of two years and administered the oath of office. Mayor Lieberman congratulated Dina Epstein and Deborah McDermott on their election for Village Trustees for a term of two years and administered their Constitutional Oath of Office.

Mayor Lieberman delivered the State of the Village Address, giving special thanks to Bruce Kennedy for his dedication as Mayor for the last 8 years. The Mayor spoke fondly of his family and their unwavering support during his political endeavors.

This was followed by numerous appointments of Village employees and volunteers. One notable volunteer was Village Historian, Ted Kopczynski. With Village Court Clerk, Kathleen Mackney, has been honored as the Nassau County Bar Association's "Clerk of the Year" in a ceremony held on May 4th. vibrancy instilled in me an even still further spark of enthusiasm for the Village I serve.

This ideal of the volunteer bodes well in our one square mile as Sea Cliff has historically been deemed a "Village of Volunteers". Indeed, throughout this edition of the Village Bulletin you will read and observe many of our citizen volunteers working together in united endeavors for the benefit of their community. This invigorated spirit and renewed vibrancy is welcoming Sea Cliff into a new chapter of volunteerism to its already rich history. In advancing the cause of our volunteer groups, we will all have the opportunity to meet our volunteers at the June 11th SpringFest. Please make sure that in addition to enjoying the music and the crafts of our local artists, you visit the displays and booths sponsored by our volunteers. Perhaps your talents and passion for our Village can be shared with one or more of these volunteer groups for the betterment of Sea Cliff.

This time of year brings a special feeling to Sea Cliff. Spring has arrived and that traditionally means a season full of activities and special events throughout our Village.

Please utilize our website and sign up for our Sea Cliff Circle for a continuous listing of an array of events and activities. Also, consider signing up on the website for our Code Red emergency notification system.

Upon the opening of our Village Beach you will be welcomed by our dedicated life-guard staff, led by Beach Manager Ann Kopple and Assistant Beach Manager, Nina Ring. In addition we will have a new food concessionaire operating our Cafe. Our waterfront remains a special place for us and we remain dedicated to honoring its natural beauty as well as enjoying family-fun events, such as our Friday Night Music Series, at this magnificent venue.

But as your Mayor what will fill me with an intense feeling of enormous pride and honor is to lead our Memorial Day Parade this May 29th. I can think of no higher honor than to represent this wonderful Village in leading this solemn, yet celebratory, procession in memory of those who gave their last measure to our nation. Without those sacrifices we would not have cause to celebrate or experience those other occasions we enjoy so much. Please join our Memorial Day celebration as we parade through the Village, under the auspices of our local James F. Brengel American Legion Post 456, and join together at Clifton Park for an enjoyable and meaningful program in celebration of this important day.

As you can see Sea Cliff is a vibrant, progressive, and family-oriented community which has so much to offer its residents and, in turn, the residents have so much more to give back, to ensure that our Village thrives and grows. So, please enjoy the experience of our special Village and Welcome Sea Cliff!

In Remembrance

The Mayor and the Village of Sea Cliff commend the life and service of David L. Craft.

We extend our condolences to his family and friends. He will be missed.

Residential Rehabilitation Program: Improving Village Life One Home at a Time

The Residential Rehabilitation Program is a grant resource that allows low income families to have certain types of improvement work performed on their owner occupied homes. Households must not exceed HUD defined low income limits, among other requirements, to qualify for assistance.

Repairs and/or upgrades will relate to weatherization, energy efficiency and health and safety. Repairs performed under this grant are determined on an individual basis and may vary from home to home. Funding is NOT AVAILABLE for decorative changes/work. Renovations MAY include:

- Exterior – windows, vinyl siding, garage door, roof, leaders & gutters, railings
- Interior – boiler, water heater, electrical upgrades, doors, handrails, lead abatement
- Handicap Accessibility – access ramp, bathroom access, barrier removal

The Sea Cliff Village Community Development program will be accepting applications from Sea Cliff residents for the Residential Rehabilitation wait list. Applications will be available June 5, 2017 to pick up at Village Hall and to print out from the Village website, www.seacliff-ny.gov. Eligibility requirements, submission instructions and deadlines will be included with the application. Placement on the wait list does not guarantee a grant will be received or that work will be performed. Program funding is dependent upon annual federal and local Community Development Block Grant allocations. Questions about the program can be directed to Erinn McDonnell at emcdonnell@seacliff-ny.gov.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

For newly formed Sea Cliff Technology Task Force

by Kevin McGilloway

At the April 3rd Annual Sea Cliff Village Meeting, Mayor Ed Lieberman announced the formation of a Technology Task Force to "seek ways to employ information technology to enhance the Sea Cliff experience for residents and staff." Mayor Lieberman asked me to organize and chair the Task Force, given my education (MS-Computer Science) and work experience (Chief Information Officer) - and my desire to keep contributing to the Village after my term as Trustee expires next year.

Although we will certainly refine the specifics around the Task Force as it moves forward, the basic goal immediately translates into the following themes:

- Information Access & Security – securely making information more easily available to authorized people, starting with improved website navigation
- Connectivity – providing new ways to improve communication among staff, trustees, and residents, including electronic surveys and video-conferencing
- Operational Efficiency – introducing electronic forms to optimize Village processes and better tools for analyzing/reporting information

- Government Transparency – live streaming/recording of important public meetings for those who cannot attend in person
- Finances – exploring ways to cost-effectively deliver the above with minimal net impact on the Village budget

The initial plan is for these and other areas to be addressed by various working groups, with a monthly coordinating meeting to share ideas and formulate/execute an action plan. The Task Force's kick-off meeting was on Monday May 15th at 8 p.m. at Village Hall. If you could not make the meeting, no problem – you can still help in many ways such as reviewing materials, doing research, and testing new functions.

I have already heard from a number of residents and staff interested in participating in the Task Force, including Trustee Deb McDermott who has volunteered to be my partner in overseeing the Task Force. However, we need more volunteers – with the only requirement a willingness to help!

Please contact Deb (dmcdermott@seacliff-ny.gov) or me (kmcgilloway@seacliff-ny.gov) if you're interested – or just show up at our first meeting on Monday May 15th!

Senior Outreach is Here FOR YOU!

The Sea Cliff Senior Outreach Worker is available at Village Hall and can provide a wide range of support. Here you can find information and programs that will help to enhance your life. Embracing the mission of aging in place and community collaboration, Senior Outreach deals with your individual needs while you navigate through simple as well as complex life issues. This includes the maze of Social Security and Medicare, the complexities of discharge planning and the assessment of financial assistance. For more information and to discuss your unique challenges of independent living, call Karen Montagnese 671-0080 x36.

That Wild, Wacky Sea Cliff Golf Event is Coming Again!

Save the Date, Saturday, September 9

Yes, that zany, crazy golf event through the front and back lawns, hidden gardens, parks and passageways of our 133 year old Victorian village is back. The Sea Cliff Good of the Village Association will use this delightfully wacky contest as their primary fundraiser for 2017. Watch for further details. The Association is seeking sponsors for this special event. For information contact Sheila Wenger at sheilawenger@danielgale.com.

A Letter from Your New Building Inspector

I am grateful and honored to have been selected by Mayor Ed Lieberman to be your Superintendent of Buildings. Sea Cliff has a unique character, the likes that I have never seen. The aesthetics and beauty of the homes are storybook. The Village is able to maintain this unique character with several administrative boards that diligently monitor various aspects of the building and renovation process for homes and properties to ensure that the village's beauty and character remains intact.

In my thirty-eight year career in enforcement at mostly federal and now local municipalities, I've come to find that effective enforcement demands the use of discretion. That principle in conjunction with the implementation of risk management, risk aversion and best practices is a formula that has suited me well in my relatively successful career in civil service.

It is my goal moving forward to make the building department a seamless, transparent and customer friendly step in the overall process with the residents in making the administration's vision for the village come to fruition. We have already begun to remove redundancies and simplify forms. With the help of fellow inspectors Carl Rumatoski, Shane Dommin, coordinator Nancy Eder and secretary to the zoning board Lynn Ryan, we will facilitate the administration's visions and goals.

I fully embrace and welcome the task at hand. I look forward to the pleasure of meeting the village residents and related trade professionals as you visit the building department to begin your building projects in the coming months and beyond. Respectfully, Michael Mandarino

The Trees of Sea Cliff

by the Sea Cliff Tree Committee

Did you know that the roots are the most important part of a tree, not its top? The following comments from Donald C. Willeke, Director of the American Forestry Association, provide some interesting information about tree roots.

Tree roots must have oxygen in order to function. Covering roots with dirt or water can deprive roots of vital oxygen supplies since the feeder roots of most trees are only in the top 6-12 inches of soil. These feeder roots are mostly in a large, shallow disk-like area under the tree that is 2-4 times the area covered by the crown (top) of the trees. It is a myth, for instance, that Oak trees have a long "tap" root that goes straight down.

Grading dirt over the feeder roots, or grading dirt away from the root zone anywhere under their branches, suffocates or removes the feeder roots and kills all or most of the tree crown in 1-3 years. Compaction of the soil under trees (construction vehicles, parking of cars, repeated walking by people, etc.) is almost as deadly to trees as covering their roots with soil. Trenching to install utilities or a sprinkler system cuts a tree's roots – multiple trenches can sever most of a tree's roots, leading to slow tree death. Changing soil grades so that the soil stays wet usually results in suffocation of all roots that are wet due to lack of oxygen, and the tree dies.

Finally, trees communicate with each other through their roots. Wounding or pruning Oak tree trunks and branches any time from early spring to late summer can result in the Oak wilt disease infecting the tree. If there are a clump of Oak trees in the area, a single tree's infection will spread through the intertwined roots to all the other Oak trees in the clump, killing all the trees.

Stress on a tree usually does not manifest itself immediately. A drought one year may cause a large number of trees to die in the immediately following years. Cutting of feeder roots may lead to increasing loss of branches in the tree top canopy the following year. Once stressed this way, the tree becomes less able to fend off attacks by insects and other diseases, contributing to rapid decline in tree health.

Birth of a Village – Sea Cliff’s First President

by Sara Reres, Museum Director

On October 12, 2018, the Village of Sea Cliff will celebrate its 135th year of Incorporation. Have you wondered how Sea Cliff managed to create its own school, library, fire department, police department and government separate from its surrounding communities?

Perhaps the Village’s past as a Methodist religious retreat forged an independence and desire to chart its own course, even as Glen Cove provided a school and neighborhood “bucket brigades” fought fires.

One man stands out for his generosity and will to make Sea Cliff an independent, safe and educated village. Frederick W. Geissenhainer, a prominent lawyer from New York City and Sea Cliff resident, and a few other generous souls, opened a school free to all children residing in the village with 50 students. In a few months, a public meeting voted to petition the Legislature to set up a separate Sea Cliff School District.

In 1884, a group of men organized the F.W. Geissenhainer Engine Co. #1. Mr. Geissenhainer paid for a Remington hand engine known as the “little giant”. Mr. Geissenhainer also supplied the water for the fire engine from his private reservoir.

Watch for opening dates for The Sea Cliff Village Museum’s new exhibit, “Birth of A Village”, which is scheduled to open in the fall, with a Village Timeline, photos, documents and artifacts from the Village’s early days. The school our children attend, the libraries, museum, places of worship and government were created to foster a spirit of independence and pride in the uniqueness of the village and its people. Call 516-671-0090 for further information, and information on volunteering at the Museum.

Don't Miss It. The Annual Senior Picnic On Saturday, June 10

Sea Cliff’s Senior Action Committee will once again host its annual Senior Picnic on Saturday, June 10, 12 noon to 3:00 p.m., at the Sea Cliff Methodist Church on Downing and Carpenter Avenues. There will be delicious hot dogs, hamburgers, salads, soft drinks, and ice cream...all free. Sea Cliff’s own John Canning will MC along with music to bring back old time memories. The picnic is hosted by the Senior Action Committee and is open to all seniors of the North Shore School District. The picnic will be held rain or shine as it can be moved indoors, compliments of the church. It’s a fun time. So if you’re a senior come on by. Call Alice O’Donnell to reserve your spot. 671-5199.

Volunteers Needed

If you can serve as a senior bus escort for shopping trips to Glen Cove on Wednesdays, contact Alice O’Donnell at 516-671-5199. Escorts assist seniors on and off the bus, sometimes helping with bundles. If you can serve once a week or once a month, it would help the program a great deal.

Consider volunteering for our NEW Emergency and Friendly Phone Chain. For some seniors a friendly phone call makes their day, especially in times of emergency like a storm or power failure. This program is in development and we would like your support. Contact Tina Marchese for more information 759-8623.

The Flutterby Garden Announces Summer Events

By Dina Epstein

We are happy to offer a Twilight Tuesday sketching series at the garden. In this 4 week class, an instructor will lead amateur, mid-level, or advanced artists in sketching outside at the garden. It will take place June 13, 20, 27 and July 11. Please bring your own sketch pad and materials. Suggested donation $10.00 per class.

Please check our website FlutterbySeaCliff.org and our Facebook page: @flutterbyfoundation for future events, such as Sunday morning Tai Chi, a Bee Keepers Journal, Poetry at the Park and Butterflies Under the Stars.

Please understand that we are seeking donations for an expansion of the garden this spring/summer. Your donations will make this expansion possible. For information on any of our programs or to donate, please go to www.FlutterbySeaCliff.org. We are committed to promoting butterfly conservation and we hope you are too, so please do not use Roundup® (glyphosate) or similar herbicides in your garden as they are harmful to butterflies and bees.

About 35 years ago village residents Noreen Martone and Rose Capuco were approached by the Sea Cliff clergy and informed that there were a growing number of people in the village who were in financial trouble, most of whom needed food. Noreen and Rose immediately sprang into action and helped start an organization called The Mutual Concerns Committee. It consists of a board and many volunteers, who, through the years, have met the short and long-term needs of those in need. Local organizations, businesses, schools and individuals support this 501(c)(3) charitable group with financial contributions and food drives. Eventually the MCC expanded to help all those within the North Shore School District.

Mutual Concerns provides:

- Holiday baskets at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter.
- A lunch and social program, where twice a week (Tuesdays and Fridays) at St. Luke’s Parish Hall, those 60 and older can have a nutritious lunch and participate in various programs such as light exercise,

by Peggie Como

cards, bingo and blood pressure and health assessments. Transportation is provided if needed. Sometimes this lunch is the only nutritious meal our seniors may have during the day. It also gives them a chance to get out of their homes and socialize. We also have volunteers who deliver lunches to those who can’t make it to the lunches. Our senior outreach contact, Karen Montagnese, makes frequent visits to the lunch program to address any concerns the seniors might have.

- An emergency food pantry, which assists people regardless of age all through the year. All clients are kept confidential.

• An Annual Christmas Day Dinner, where those who don’t have family nearby can enjoy a holiday dinner with friends and neighbors on Christmas day.

Thanks to the generosity of the people in this community, we are able to help those in need and sustain our programs.

If anyone has any questions about any of our programs or services, please call Peggie Como at 516-759-9539.

Middle School Jazz Band performs for Sea Cliff Seniors at the Mutual Concerns lunch program. Wonderful music, food and friends!

Mutual Concerns: Summer Lunch Schedule

by Peggie Como

As you probably know, every Tuesday and Friday the Mutual Concerns Committee sponsors a very popular lunch and social program for those 60 and older at St. Luke’s Parish Hall on Glen Avenue. As in past years, we spend the month of July at the Tappen Beach picnic area, where we enjoy the outdoors with a picnic lunch and programs such as light yoga and bingo. The first two weeks in August we will be back at St. Luke’s. There is no program for the last two weeks in August. We will resume our regular lunch program in September. Bus transportation for the lunch program to and from St. Luke’s is available for all Sea Cliff residents. If you haven’t attended the lunch program, please give it a try. Just drop by on a Tuesday or Friday. It starts at about 11:30 and ends at 2:00. All are welcome!

Please call Village Hall at 516-671-0080 if you require transportation. If you need any further information, call Peggie Como at 516-759-9539.

ECC Encourages Recycling and Composting

By Dina Epstein

Residents should know that a large portion of our annual budget (a/k/a their taxes) goes towards garbage disposal. There are two ways to cut that cost: recycle or compost waste, rather than throw it in the garbage. Recycling costs approximately 1/3 of the cost of garbage disposal, composting is free. The ECC will be offering composters for sale at Springfest on June 11th. Please stop by our table to purchase a composter and to talk about composting and recycling, as well as other ways to make Sea Cliff greener.

The Village has single stream recycling where all recyclables can be thrown together in one bin and left out for pickup on Wednesday mornings. The following items can be recycled:

- Aluminum: cans, foil, pie plates, food containers. Please clean.
- Books: paperbacks, hardcovers & textbooks w/ the hard covers removed.
- Cardboard: All corrugated boxes, egg containers, food boxes from cereal or frozen food. Please remove Styrofoam™, plastic and other packing materials.
- Glass containers: bottles, jars (brown, clear or green). Please rinse clean.
- Mail: Junk mail, catalogs, cards, magazines & all types of paper envelopes.
- Metal: all types of metal (except mercury) including food & beverage containers, steel and tin.

- Paper: All colors and types.
- Plastic containers: #1-7 all types, including from food & beverage, medicine, cleaning products, including lids and caps. Please rinse clean.
- Rigid plastics: including crates, lawn furniture, laundry baskets, garbage cans, coolers, flower pots, plastic drums.
- Spray cans: Empty aerosol cans.

Unfortunately, plastic bags, hazardous waste and chemicals, Styrofoam™ and used or dirty paper products cannot be recycled.

Coalition to Save Hempstead Harbor Summer Update

by Elaine Neice

The sun was shining on the Coalition to Save Hempstead Harbor's Earth Day Celebration and Beer Tasting at Garvies Point Brewery, on Sunday, April 23. Over 50 people spent an evening sampling beer "flights" of craft brews. Thank you to Garvies Point Brewery for providing a fun venue for friends to mingle and have great conversation about local issues. Special thanks to Rising Tide Market for donating organic veggies and hummus platter, Ship to Shore Yacht Detailing for providing a delicious assortment of sandwiches (prepared by Country Plaza Deli in Locust Valley), and Grassroots Bakeshop for providing wonderful dessert treats to top off the evening. We are grateful to all who helped to make this event a success!

Visit CSHH at Spring Fest 2017!

Please visit our table on June 11 and get information about environmental issues affecting Hempstead Harbor and LI Sound. You can pick up a colorful yard sign ($8 each) and to show your support for the I Love Long Island Campaign, get information on alternatives to high nitrogen fertilizers, and find out what you can do to be part of the solution in preventing pollution. CSHH is a supporting sponsor of this campaign (www.ILoveLongIsland.org), and we hope you will support it as well!

Kayak Cleanup, July 15

CSHH and Shore Thing Rentals are teaming up for the second annual Kayak Cleanup, Saturday, July 15, 8:30-noon. Use your own kayak or rent one for the event. Help us clean up those areas of the harbor's shoreline that are not easily reached beach cleanups. Volunteers with power boats are welcome to help as well! For more details and to preregister, visit www.coalition-tosavehempsteadharbor.org.

Hempstead Harbor Water Monitoring Expanded for 2017

CSHH initiated the water-monitoring program for Hempstead Harbor in 1992 and continues to coordinate the core program in partnership with the Hempstead Harbor Protection Committee. Thanks to funding from HHPC and the Nassau Soil and Water Conservation District, the water-monitoring program, which includes weekly sampling of up to 21 stations around the harbor, will continue intact this year.

Bad Garbage Bags

by Allie Friedman, 4th grade

I think we should make a law in Sea Cliff that bans plastic bags. I think this for multiple reasons. One reason is that plastic bags and plastic products are hurting the animals really badly. The animals are finding the trash and eating it. The trash can make them full or sick, and then they won't be hungry, so they won't eat what they are supposed to eat, then they could die. That's a big reason why many animals in the world are dying. Another reason is, in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, There is a patch of garbage called the Great Pacific Garbage Patch. It is so big that it is bigger than the state of Texas! And it gets bigger by the minute. And that is not the only garbage patch. There are

Coalition to Save Hempstead Harbor Marine Reporters Wanted!

Are you an avid boater, kayaker or nature enthusiast? CSHH has a loyal group of reporters for local observations and would like to expand this effort! Please e-mail us at info@coalitiontosavehempsteadharbor.org if you would like to help. Through our reporters, we get the latest information on whale, dolphin, and seal sightings, the presence of bald eagles, new osprey nests, as well as large schools of bunker, bluefish, and striped bass, and other marine life visiting Hempstead Harbor!

Please visit www.coalition-tosavehempsteadharbor.org for more information about a new water monitoring program for 2017, annual reports and details about all of our programs and to sign up for our digital newsletter. more little garbage patches all over the Pacific Ocean. These patches are polluting the ocean, which also means a lot of sea creatures and coral plants die.

This is why I think we should ban plastic bags from Sea Cliff. And if we can't make this a law, the people of Sea Cliff should just stop using them. Remember, everything you do counts!

Clean Boating Tips

by Eric Swenson, Executive Director, Hempstead Harbor Protection Committee

Undoubtedly, one of the pleasures of living on Long Island in the summer is being able to spend time on our boats – fishing, enjoying sunsets, or simply getting away from the hustle and bustle. If we are lucky, we will once again be able to see humpback whales, Peregrine falcons, seals, bald eagles, diamondback terrapins, and other creatures that have returned now that water quality and habitat areas have been improved or been restored.

Water quality and enjoyment of the water are directly related. And water quality and taking personal responsibility to protect it are also directly related. This article will provide some guidance to boaters on steps to take to protect our waters.

Maintenance: When scraping the bottom of your boat, place a tarp under the area being worked on and use vacuum sanders and grinders. Try to use non-phosphate, biodegradable cleansers or plain water. The chemicals contained in many boat cleaners can kill or harm fish and other aquatic creatures. When done, sweep up and dispose of the scrapings, rather than hosing it down. Recycle your used motor oil. A free disposal tank for this purpose is located at Tappen Beach. Bottom paint can contain toxic metals that work their way through the aquatic food chain and greatly increase the cost for maintenance dredging of marinas and waterways.

Fueling: When fueling, do not top off your tank. Fuel expands as temperatures rise, so fill the tank to 90%. Also, unlike automobiles, dockside gas pumps do not automatically shut off when tanks are full. One simple and inexpensive option is to install a "fuel whistle" or similar device on your fuel line. When the tank approaches the full mark, the air in the line "whistles" to tell you to stop. You should also install an absorbent "bilge sock" in your bilge to absorb any oils, gas, and power steering fluids that may leak into the bilge. As little as a quart of oil or gasoline can contaminate up to 250,000 gallons of water.

Pumpouts: All of Long Island Sound and all of its bays and harbors are designated as a Vessel Waste No Discharge Zone. Use dockside pumpout stations or pumpout boats operated by the Town of North Hempstead or Town of Oyster Bay. Sewage disposed of in the water can lead to elevated bacteria and nitrogen levels that can cause beach and shellfish closures and algae blooms and fish kills. The US EPA reports that a single weekend boater flushing untreated sewage into our waters produces the same amount of bacterial pollution as 10,000 people whose sewage passes through a sewage treatment plant.

Invasive Species: When moving your boat from one waterbody to another, inspect and remove all visible mud, plants, fish and animals from the boat and trailer, clothing, pets, fishing gear and other equipment and dispose of this debris in a sealed plastic bag on land. Invasive species can wreak havoc on ecosystems and wastewater treatment plants and are extremely difficult to control once introduced.

Waste Disposal: Just as you do at home, properly dispose of and recycle your waste, being especially careful with plastics which some marine animals mistake for food and which can clog their digestive systems. The Center for Marine Conservation reports that plastics account for more than 50% of all marine debris.

If you fish, also pay attention to your monofilament fishing line and six pack rings. Both the Town of North Hempstead and Town of Oyster Bay have monofilament recycling receptacles. Studies have shown that more than 267 species of marine organisms have been known to ingest or become entangled in marine debris that enters the water.

Welcome Back! It's Time To Get "Beach Serious!"

Beach Manager Ann, Assistant Manager Nina and the professionally trained lifeguards look forward to a safe and fun-filled summer!

Please review with your child safety rules for the beach and water. Here are helpful actions you can take which help our lifeguards keep your children safe: accompany children to the water's edge and into the water at all times, and remind your child how important it is to follow the directions of the lifeguards every day. They have a serious responsibility and your cooperation makes their job easier. Help us by educating your child about beach safety, as it is our #1 priority!

To ensure your child's safety in the water, give them the gift of learning to swim! Enroll them in Sea Cliff Beach's "Swim Safe" program where they are taught skills and safety in the water. Three levels of instruction are offered within our comprehensive program taught by Nassau County certified lifeguards. For information and registration, inquire at the Beach Office. Sessions run Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, July 10 - 27, 10:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. for Beginners ages 5 years and up, and 10:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. for Advanced Beginners and Intermediates.

Summer at the Library

by Camille Purcell

Today, many people may wonder if the library is still relevant. At the Sea Cliff Library, we are here to prove that not only are libraries still relevant, but they are needed now more than ever. In addition to our traditional offerings, we provide patrons with an array of services that are decidedly non-traditional. We have museum passes to a number of museums located either on the Island or in Manhattan. This year we are delighted to announce two new offerings: the NY Transit Museum located in downtown Brooklyn and the Brooklyn Botanical Gardens. We are happy to offer to our patrons Zinio, a digital magazine service, which allows patrons to download their favorite magazine title onto their electronic device. Some titles included in this service are: Cook's Illustrated, HGTV Magazine, Parents, The Economist, Dwell and Vanity Fair. We also offer two new online services: Miss Humblebee's Academy, a curriculum enriched database promoting kindergarten readiness and Cypress Resume services. All these are in addition to our offering of downloadable audio/ebooks through Overdrive and Freegal, from which you can download music onto your smartphones and other devices.

Summer is the season everyone longs for with its long days of sunshine and soft breezes. Why not consider joining one of our three book clubs. Each club carefully selects the materials to be read and feature both fiction and non-fiction. All the clubs offer intellectual stimulation and camaraderie.

Check our website and calendar for programs and events. We will be featuring the reading lists for Middle and High School students. You can play chess and checkers on the Village Green with one of our sets. Leave us your email and we will include you in our program blasts and if you want to know what to read next we can also have a weekly newsletter sent to you based on your preferred reading genre. Remember to visit us at the Beach for our annual book truck full of popular reading material.

Enjoy all that the season offers – and remember in the word of Albert Einstein – “the only thing you absolutely have to know is the location of the library.”

Children's Library Summer 2017

by Ann DiPietro, Children's Library Coordinator

Come join us at the Children's Library for a summer of fun, friends, and great books! On Wednesday, June 28 at 10:30 a.m., Story Time at Sea Cliff Beach begins and will continue through the end of August. We will have stories- tall tales, fairy tales and, of course, Sea Cliff tales - with crafts for all ages. Our other story hours on Thursdays and Fridays at 10:30 will meet in air-conditioned comfort back at the library. To celebrate the Fourth of July we will have our "Happy Birthday, USA" gala on Monday night July 3 plus a decorating party for trikes, bikes, and strollers on Saturday, July 1 - all leading up to our parade down Sea Cliff Avenue on the Fourth, following the reading of the Declaration on the Village Green. Of course, the heart of our library is reading so we will be holding weekly book discussions for new kindergarteners through fifth graders throughout the summer. Medals and trophies will be awarded for those interested in keeping reading logs while here at home or away at camp or on vacation. In addition, we will present Family Book Nights in July and August with dinner and dessert for parents and children. We'll continue to host Meet the Parents - a group made up of new parents, parents of toddlers, and those about to become parents - on the first Thursday of each month from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. throughout the year. Also, this summer we are launching a new program "1000 Books Before Kindergarten" to encourage reading to infants and toddlers. Email us at scchildrenslibrary@gmail.com for more details and check northwordnews.com for updates about any and all of these programs and events.

21st Annual July 4th Celebration

Mark your calendars for 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, July 4th, rain or shine! The Sea Cliff Civic Association invites you to attend a gala celebration of America's Declaration of Independence on the John Burns Village Green, in front of the adult library.

The Civic Association is planning a program that will include ringing the village bell, the presentation of colors, a short play about the signers of the Declaration, refreshments and much more. The morning's event will begin with a reading of the Declaration of Independence by a variety of Sea Cliff villagers. When the Reading ends, there will be a bicycle parade from the Village Green down Sea Cliff Ave. to Lincoln Plaza where refreshments will be served. Children are invited to decorate their bicycles, wagons, scooters and strollers (no roller skates, skateboards or pets) with patriotic flair. They can do this on their own or join others on Saturday, July 1 at 10 a.m. on the front lawn at the Children's Library. Although the Reading will take place, rain or shine, the parade will depend on clear weather.

Be sure to be there and bring your family and friends. Start this holiday by remembering what the picnics and fireworks are really all about.

Volunteer members of the Sea Cliff Beautification Committee meet and celebrate their hard work at the Metropolitan Bistro.
